

Webinar 4

Social cooperatives in Greece webinar 3 and 4

These two webinars will present the situation in Greece relating to social cooperatives and social enterprises with case studies of women social enterprises. We will also learn about the future plans for creation of a Women Resource Center in the rural area of Central Macedonia and about social cooperatives that supports the center.

Time and place

Web 3: 02.00 p.m. to 03.30 p.m. on April 7 2021 (Swedish time, summer time) Zoom 10.00

Web 4: 10.00 a.m. to 11.30 a.m. on April 21 2021 (Swedish time, summer time) on Zoom

Programme

- Welcome, Bodil Nilsson, FemNet
- Entrepreneurship and social economy - the gender dimension, Anna Trichopoulou, Ergani Center – webinar 3
- Women Resource Center in the rural area of Central Macedonia and social cooperatives that support the center. Popi Sourmaidou, Ergani Center – webinar 4
- Discussion, summary and next meetings

Ergani - Center for the support of employment and entrepreneurship of women

Ergani Center was established in 1991. Ergani Center is a non Governmental, non profit making organisation Supports women, young people and people facing social exclusion on employment and entrepreneurship issues.

Ergani's headquarters is in Thessaloniki (Central Macedonia) and has a branch in Kozani (Western Macedonia). The staff is scientists/experts and provides information, flexible training and counseling services.

<https://www.ergani.gr/en>

